Newsletter

Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome to our Newsletter for April.

Welcome to our summer term-a time with lots to look forward to, even some sunshine, hopefully.

Could all children be in their summer uniform for Tuesday 3rd May.

School Dinners

New 'Lunchtime' Caterers have made a very positive start..

The children are particularly enjoying the excellent range of fresh fruit. You are invited to see for yourselves on Friday 29th April. Taster food and menus will be available from 3.00pm-4.00pm in the Infant Hall. Everyone is welcome. click here for more information

They are also preparing a 'Themed Day' for Friday 10th June as the Euro football competition begins.

Summer Fair

Proposed date is Friday 8th July. If you are interested in helping PLEASE come along on Thursday 28th April @ 2.15pm

Parking outside the school

Having sent messages, as well as writing to Haringey Highways department, I am now contacting the Police Safer Neighbourhood team for advice and support. I am seriously concerned for the safety of our children dashing across the road whilst a few parents cause obstruction to traffic on an already busy road.

There is free parking on parts of St. Ann's Road as well as a number of roads off St. Ann's. The vast majority of our parents do park safely it is only the few that are putting our children at risk.
