

30hrs application process goes live

On Friday 28th April, the HMRC digital Childcare system went live, enabling parents to apply for Tax-Free Childcare and 30 hours.

What can you as providers do to help?

- Direct parents to; <https://childcare-support.tax.service.gov.uk/par/app/applynow> to check eligibility and apply for 30hrs.
- Advise parents to use the DfE 30hours Eligibility Guide to help them understand if they're eligible; <http://www.gov.uk/government/publications/30-hours-free-childcare-eligibility>.

Please note that parents will not need to apply through the digital childcare service if they only want to claim the universal 15 hours entitlement for three and four year olds.

Early years entitlement: operational guidance

The DfE released their Early Years entitlement operational guidance on Monday 24th April, as a guide to help local authorities and providers understand in more detail the DfE's expectations about how the free entitlements should be delivered.

While the online Electronic Checking System (ECS) is being developed, we have put in place an interim procedure for providers that will be offering 30hour places in September 2017; (Please read and circulate this letter to all staff.)

Admission principles

From previous engagements we understand that a number of providers have concerns on how to manage admissions, and they would like some guidance in this area.

To address this concern we would like to engage with all providers to develop a set of agreed admission principles that can be guidelines that all settings can adopt.

Tax-Free Childcare - Unique Taxpayer Reference (UTR)

To receive Tax-Free Childcare payments, childcare providers need to sign up with their UTR. As advised by HRMC, all local authority maintained settings will need to use their Local Authorities UTR, while private settings use their own.

However as local authorities are not a typical business that pays tax, we do not have a traditional UTR, hence the delay in providing details to our maintained settings. We are liaising with HRMC to resolve this issue and will confirm details asap.

Provider Champions - Making the 30hours offer work

To ensure that the implementation of the 30hours offer is a success, we need the input of providers throughout the whole process.

Therefore we would like to develop a team of Provider Champions who will play a key role in helping us to shape and implement the 30 hours offer over the coming months.

If you are interested in becoming a Providers Champion please email earlyyearsprovider@haringey.gov.uk.
